

Affordable solutions
in all aspect of building.

At Ultima Building Group, our passion and expertise is in constructing incredible architectural homes, renovations and extensions. With a focus on exemplary details, precise engineering and design, we develop purpose built dwellings to your individual requirements.

Ultima Building Group is a family owned residential construction company located in the Western Sydney Metro area. We specialise in renovations, extensions and new home builds.

With over a decade in construction, remodelling and development, we deliver rapid and quality services in all aspects of building. This includes architecturally designed homes, complete with value added services such as project management, decorating, styling and interior design.

We are a team of committed and passionate individuals who will work with you to create the dream home you envision, while maintaining economic oversight to adhere to your budget. Our services are specifically tailored to ensure we take a bespoke approach to every project.

Backed by quality workmanship, the company is founded on the basic principles of complete transparency, strong ethics, quality design and trusted relationships.

We pride ourselves on clear and honest communication and we ensure that each project is completed on time and in line with your specific requirements. With our affordable solutions, we are dedicated to creating beautiful spaces that function seamlessly with the way people live.

For us, renovations and new home builds should create a connection between people and their home. It begins with listening to our clients, understanding their vision, delivering to exceed expectations.

“ Such a professional in operated family owned business! Producing quality builds and great customer service. Such a pleasure to work with! ”

KATHERYN MCKEOWN

“ The Ultima team were great. They were on time and clarified what was needed. Went about the work politely, quietly and thoroughly. Checked that the job was as required before leaving. Only slow part has been me getting to give the feedback! ”

Ultima Building Group delivering what we promise

We are a trusted building company whose work captures our clients' requirements. Our services are designed to ensure that each renovation or home build is customised to individual needs and always aim to go beyond expectations. Ultima Building Group ethos is about placing quality before quantity and we are proud of our strong track record visible from our extensive portfolio of work. Working exclusively with a number of architects and draftsmen, our work brings designs to life. We know how big of an investment a home is, and as such, we treat each and every project with the respect it deserves. You will not find a more dedicated builder focused on creating your dream home because we care deeply about every project that carries our name.
