JD Homes/JDH Commercial is a Canterbury owned building and construction company specializing in any form of construction from simple too complex to infrastructure type works also having a rich history in the building trade for over some 11 years.

The company owner and director Jesse de Wys has been in the building trade his entire working career.

The team involved in this stretches deep into formed relationships of sub-trades and suppliers with many working together for over 11 years.

Jesse has strong ties to the building sector being LBP classed in carpentry and Site 2 levels along with many other avenues of upskilling areas. Also, a former Vice president of Master Builders Canterbury was on the committee for some 6 years.

We aim to be a collaborative construction company aiming to work alongside our key consultant partners and suppliers and trades, this makes for a streamline building experience.
