

One-of-a-kind shelving

The owners of this home informed HBH Joinery that they had approached three other joiners who didn't want to touch this project. Enjoying a challenge, we took on this bespoke shelving, which used a combination of timber-print melamine and two-pack polyurethane, with the shelves, cupboards and internal drawers. The intricacy and precision of this project made it a labour of love.

